Saying It Out Loud Conference

Improve competency in serving LGBTQ+ individuals and families

Dear Provider Partners:

Molina Healthcare invites you to attend an informative conference sponsored by the Health Care Authority.

What is it? The Saying It Out Loud Conference will focus on information sharing and networking to improve behavioral health services and decrease disparities faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ+) individuals.

Who should attend? Individuals who want to improve competency to better serve the LGBTQ+ community. Past attendees include professionals from many areas such as behavioral health (mental health and substance use), community based organizations, child welfare, education, criminal justice, etc. The conference is open to everyone.

Why should I attend? As an attendee, you will gain awareness and knowledge of the best practices and important services to support members of the LGBTQ+ community.

Featured Speaker: Juli Stratton

Juli has worked as a gender and sexual diversity educator and trainer, and is the founder of North Idaho Pride Alliance.
